Negro Poisoner Captured.

Dave Kemper, the negro who is charged with attempting to poison the family of Mr. Sam Hardin, a well-known Bourbon farmer of near Shakespear, several months ago, and who has been a fugitive from justice since the occurrence, was arrested Saturday at Riddles Mills by Deputy Sheriff W. F. Talbott and Jailer Geo. W. Judy and is now in jail awaiting his examining trial. Many persons have forgotten the circumstances of the case, which were as follows:

Kemper was employed by Mr. Hardin as a farm hand and, for several days before the attempt to poison Mr. Hardin and his family was made, he was heard to mutter threats against his employer.

On the morning when the attempt was made Kemper, it is said, volunteered to make the fire for the cook, and it is thought while she was engaged in other duties poison was slipped in the bucket of drinking water, flour, butter, milk and other articles of food that were to be used on the breakfast table.

After making the fire Kemper left the premises, while the negro woman proceeded to prepare the morning meal. In taking a drink of water she tasted something bitter and throwing out the remainder that was in the cup she stepped over to the jar of lard and with a spoon placed some of the lard in her mouth to counteract the taste of the water.

The lard being equally as bitter as the water she then notified Mr. and Mrs. Harding of her discovery. All of the lard, butter, flour, milk and meat that had been given out for the breakfast meal was then dumped into the slop tub and unthoughtfully emptied into a hog trough by the cook.

A bunch of nine hogs belonging to Mr. Harding ate the contents of the trough and in less than an hour all died in great agony, clearly demonstrating that the food was saturated with poison. The stomach of one of the hogs was taken out and sent to the chemist of State University, in Lexington, whose analysis showed that enough poison had been eaten to have killed a hundred people.

An immediate search of the premises disclosed the fact that Kemper had made his escape. Messages were sent by the Sheriff to all the neighboring towns to be on the lookout for Kemper, together with an accurate description of the negro, but nothing was heard of him till Saturday when he was apprehended as above stated.

A Correction.

In some unexplainable manner we made a mistake in the published statement of the Farmers' Bank, of Millersburg, in our last issue. We had "house and lot $7,000" when the amount should have been $9,000.

Presidential Nominee in Jail.

The Socialist Labor party nominated Martin R. Preston, of Nevada, for President, and Donald Munro, of Virginia, for Vice President. Preston is now in jail at Goldfield, Nev., for shooting a restaurant-keeper.

Change of Program at the Grand.

Manager Jackson, of the Paris Grand, is securing for his patrons vaudeville acts that are delighting all. Last night he presented an entirely new program, which is an exceptionally good one.

Two new vaudeville acts, two new sets of the very latest moving pictures and a new illustrated song greeted those who were in attendance at the opening performance of the bill for the first three nights of this week.

Harry Pearce, singing and dancing comedian, "kicked in" with a "stunt" that is entirely new. His songs and dances caught the audience and there is no doubt but that he will gain in favor at each succeeding performance during his engagement here. The illustrated songs by Miss Nellie Lovely are always well received and on this occasion was but a repetition of her excellent efforts of the past.

MISS PAULINE LE MONTE,
A Feature at the Paris Grand This Week.

The Le Monte, a team of banjo and singing artists, are a feature of the bill this week. They are clever in their musical act which marks them as being among the best on the vaudeville stage. This team is backed up by a reputation attained for the excellence of their instrumental music and singing and can make good before any audience.

Leading Points Made in Democratic Platform.

We favor an immediate revision of the tariff. Article entering into competition with articles controlled by the trusts should be placed upon the free list.

We favor an income tax . . . and a national inheritance tax to reach the "swollen fortunes" already in existence.

Both Nation and State should ascertain the present value of railroads, measured by the cost of production; prohibit issue of any more watered stock or fictitious capitalization; prohibit railroads from engaging in any business which brings them in competition with their shippers, and reduce transportation rates to a point where they will yield a reasonable return on the present value of the roads.

Emergency currency should be issued and controlled by the Federal Government.

We favor such a modification of the law relating to injunction as will, first, prevent the issuing of the writ in industrial disputes after notice to defendants; second, permit trial before a judge, other than the one who issued the writ, and, third, allow a jury to be summoned in all cases where the alleged contempt is committed outside the presence of the court.

We insist upon legislation, State and National, making it unlawful for any corporation to contribute to campaign funds and providing for publication before the election of all individual contributions above a reasonable minimum.

Wheat Wanted.

Before selling your wheat see us, or call 'phone number 84. We buy at all stations on F. & C. and L. & N. R. R. We will store your wheat in our warehouses at Centerville, or at Millersburg, or in our elevator at Paris. Plenty of sacks.

Cleveland's Will Filed.

The will of Grover Cleveland has been filed with the Surrogate of Mercer county, N. J., and will be probated within ten days, when Mrs. Cleveland will go to Princeton from her mother's home in Tamworth, N. H., where she has been staying since the former President's death.

The amount of the estate could not be learned, but it was stated that it was larger than hitherto supposed and would provide comfortably for Mrs. Cleveland and her children.

Mr. Cleveland drew the will himself and arranged that the bulk of his property should go to his widow.

An Impudent Negro Arrested.

Julian Talbott, the colored boy that drives Batterton & Doty's delivery wagon has been in the habit of cutting two little boys severely on the legs with his whip whenever he met them. The little fellows drive stock for Mr. Whaley. Yesterday the negro again made a severe cut on the leg of one of the boys who reported it at once to his employer.

Mr. Whaley found the negro and asked him why he did it, and he replied that it was because he wanted to. He showed fight striking at Whaley, who promptly punched him in the mouth. About this time Sheriff Clarke appeared on the scene and marched the impudent negro off to jail. Bystanders were sorry to see the Sheriff, for Mr. Whaley would have given him what he deserved if Mr. Clarke had not stopped the fracas.

Wheat Wanted.

Highest market price for wheat. Will receive at either end of Paris and all R. R. stations in county. Plenty of good sacks.

DEATHS.

Roger Lavin, aged about 40 years, died at his home on High street, after two weeks illness. He is survived by his wife, nee Miss Mollie Higgins and one child, a daughter; two brothers, Mike and Joe Lavin and one sister, Miss Mollie Lavin.

The deceased was born and raised in Paris and popular with all who knew him. He was an expert tailor by trade, and worked at his trade industriously until his health failed some time ago. He was big hearted and generous to a fault. A large circle of friends will regret to learn of his death.

A Political Party Afraid.

If the mental attitude of the Republican party can be judged by the action of the convention, it has taken counsel of its fears.

In rejecting by a vote of 917 to 63—nearly 15 to 1—the plank providing for the physical valuation of railroads, the Republican party admits that it is afraid of the truth. What objection can there be to finding out what the railroads are actually worth? If they are over-capitalized, the country ought to know it. It is not over-capitalized, the railroads themselves ought to be glad to have the fact announced. As the truth is concealed, there will be exasperation on both sides—those who lean to the side of the railroads denying that there is over-capitalization, and those who demand rate reduction insisting that the over-capitalization is considerable. We ought to know the truth. But the Republican party shows by the action which the convention took that it is afraid of the truth.

The timidity of the Republican leadership was even more emphasized in the vote of 880 to 91—9 to 1—rejecting the plank providing for publicity as to campaign contributions and expenditures. They are even afraid of the light, for publicity would throw light upon politics. Elections are public affairs and they ought to be conducted in a public way. Secrecy as to campaign methods and as to the influences which affect elections is indefensible. If the demand was for the publication of past contributions and expenditures, the Republican convention might have offered as an excuse that contributions made and money expended without expectation of publicity could not be made public without some embarrassment to those giving and receiving, but such an excuse can not be offered for a law applying to future contribution and disbursements. It is not necessary that small contributions shall be made public, and to make these public might subject the giver to injustice if, for instance, the giver was an employee and opposed to his employer. The same argument that is made in favor of secret ballot could be made in favor of secrecy as to small contributions, but this argument will not apply to large contributions. If a man gives largely, the public has a right to know whether the gift measures a general interest in the public, or is part of an implied contract whereby a return is to be secured in legislation or in immunity. No corporation of any kind should be allowed to contribute to a campaign fund, for corporations are not organized above a reasonable minimum—should be open to inspection in order that the voters may be made acquainted with the influences which are at work in the campaign. Why did the Republican convention turn down this plank by such an overwhelming vote when the president had asked for publicity legislation and the Republican candidate for President had put himself on record in favor of such legislation? And how fortunate it is that Mr. Taft's letter to Senator Burrows was brought to the attention of the public! If it had not appeared before the convention, it would have been difficult to find after the convention. There can be but one explanation of the action of the Republican convention, namely, that it is the intention of those in charge of the Republican party to secure campaign funds from sources which they dare not disclose. They are afraid of the light.

But a still more remarkable manifestation of fear is to be found in the vote of 886 to 114—7 to 1—by which they turn down the proposition to elect United States Senators by direct vote of the people. What does this mean? Simply that the Republican leaders distrust popular government. We elect our Congressmen by the people, we elect our governors and State officers by the people; we elect our President and Vice President by the people. If the electors have no discretion—and no elector would dare to vote contrary to the sentiment of those who elected him—why are the people denied the right to select Senators by direct vote? There is one reason, and only one—the United States Senate today is the bulwark of predatory wealth; favor-seeking corporations have made it a depository of their power and they close the door of reform. Every remedial law must have the sanction of the Senate as well as the approval of the House and the President. So long as the exploiting interests can control the Senate, they can hold the people at bay, and this is why the Republican convention insolently thwarted the purpose of those Republicans who sympathize with the desire of the people in their demand for relief from present conditions. Surely the rank and file of the Republican party will express their indignation at this open and obvious distrust of the people. The Republican party has added to its many sins this unpardonable one, that it is afraid of the people.

What an indictment the voters can bring against the Republican party this year!
AFRAID OF THE TRUTH!
AFRAID OF THE LIGHT!
AFRAID OF THE PEOPLE!
And the party, in convention assembled, pleads, guilty to the indictment.

Democrats Forced to Contribute.

The Paper Trust has just reported to the New York Stock Exchange that its gross profits for the past ten months were $17,187,009. For which good showing the trust must be thankful to the Republican party which has protected it from competition through high tariff rates. When the Trust makes its contribution to the Republican campaign fund, every Democratic newspaper proprietor, at least, will unwillingly be the indirect donor of part of the booty to elect Taft and Sherman, and another Republican Congress, which would, if successful, perhaps revise the tariff higher instead of abolishing the tariff on wood pulp and print paper.

Is This Reform.

There must be a wave of Puritanism overrunning the Pelican State, for the Journal of the Louisiana House of Representatives records:

"An act requiring old maids and bachelors to either marry or adopt enough children to direct their attention along useful and proper lines."

"An act to make it a misdemeanor for any man to kiss his own wife or any other man's wife on Sunday, and providing a penalty therefor."

Are the people of Louisiana reforming or degenerating to the condition of those of Salem where they burnt old women as witches? Anyway it hardly seems Democratic, which should allow the most absolute freedom of the individual that is possible without interfering with the rights of others.

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate woman. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them—pure tri-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antifermentative and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul, breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal Passages it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

Cold coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate lung-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

Miss Linville has held this position since last October and was the successor of Miss Mary Louise Boulden, kind and courteous, attentive to the interests of all with whom she was called on to deal. She, like Miss Boulden, soon made a multitude of friends who sincerely regret her resignation. She was succeeded by Mr. B. A. Neal, bookkeeper at the Farmers' Bank, who is in every respect a thorough business man.

Our community was shocked Wednesday morning when it was learned that Mrs. Mattie Frank Baird had received a telegram announcing the sudden death of her father, Mr. Robert McClelland, of Cincinnati. Mr. McClelland was 58 years of age, dying suddenly of heart trouble. He was conversing at the time with friends and died without a struggle. He was a son of the late Joseph McClelland, of this place, a prominent stock dealer and farmer, and was himself well known on the stock exchange in former years. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mattie Frank Baird, of Mt. Sterling, his aged mother, Mrs. Martha McClelland, of Paris, and one brother, Mr. J. C. McClelland, of Cincinnati. The remains were brought here for burial Thursday afternoon and were taken to the home of Mrs. C. W. Corrinnton, where a short funeral service was held by Rev. T. W. Watts of the Methodist church, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Millersburg cemetery. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this sad loss. The following is a list of the out-of-town people who attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Turner, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Langston, of Paris; Mrs. John Hutsell, Mr. J. W. OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE

$3.00 tan and brown Ox-fords, at $1.98 at Frank & Co.'s.

Suffers With Broken Leg.

Mr. Chipley, who works for the county in the quarry in East Paris, was kicked by one of the work mules while feeding him Sunday, and the bone of his right leg was shattered.

Court Day.

One of the busiest court day crowds for many months was here yesterday. No trading at all worthy of note. There was not a mule on the market. About 400 of cattle were at Murphy's pens, and 350 sold at from 4 1/2 to 4 3/4.

The Bluegrass Pool.

The farmers of Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery who have pooled their bluegrass seed held a meeting in the court house yesterday. So far the dealers have failed to make them a price for the pooled seed. It is said that the farmers are talking of putting up a cleaning plant for the purpose of cleaning the pooled seed and holding until they get their price.

Shriners at Lexington.

Lexington was the Mecca Saturday for Mystic Shriners from all over the State. They were there to aid in the institution of Oleika Temple in Lexington. Nearly seventy-five candidates were initiated. The parade through the streets began at 11 o'clock, the march ending at State University campus, where luncheon was served. The Shriners then went into executive session in the gymnasium of the University, where the work was done. Among those initiated were the following from Bourbon: E. M. Dickson, John M. Bedford, John P. Peed, Sanford Allen, W. H. Bedford and M. H. H. Davis. A grand ball was given at night.

An Imposing Building.

The cupola of the new public school building which has been under construction for the past week will in a few days be completed. With this exception the outside work on the building is practically finished. Interior workmen are now on the ground and this work will be pushed as speedily as possible.

During the agreeable weather of the spring and summer work on the structure progressed rapidly and now all doubt that the building will be completed by the opening of the fall term of school has been banished. When the grounds are placed in their proper condition the building will present an imposing appearance, and will be to the citizens of Paris a building of which we are all justly proud.

Successful Church Entertainment.

The concert given at the Clintonville Christian church Friday night by the Young Ladies' Junior Aid Society was attended by a large audience and a delightful program was carried out.

Miss Myra Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Booth, of Cane Ridge, and the guests of Miss Blanche Thompson, presided at the piano, while the address of the evening was delivered by Prof. J. Moler McVey, of Houstonville, Ky. The proceeds netted $29. The program included some excellent music and a two-act drama in which the following played the different parts:

Irene Lary, Mary Gorham, Norman Liver, Lucien Terrell, Orrin Estes, Iobria Gorham, G. C. Thompson, Jr., Ernest Uarnaby, Blanche Thompson, Maude Parrish, Sallie Parrish, Nina Paris.

Milt Young to Sell Out.

Owing to the adverse legislation enacted in New York and Louisiana effecting the thoroughbred industry, Col. Milton Young, the master of McGrathiana, next to James B. Haggins' Elmendorf Stud, the largest thoroughbred breeding establishment in the United States, has decided to sell most of his thoroughbred stock, consisting of about 700 stallions, mares, yearlings and weanlings and also disposed of about 2,000 acres of his fine bluegrass land. For several days past the report has been current that Col. Young contemplated the disposal of his thoroughbreds, and when seen yesterday morning he confirmed the report by saying that his land as well as his horses are for sale.

"Get In The Push and Push."

Local interest is centered on July 23rd, the day when the Paris Commercial Club will have its first annual outing, and so far the committee in charge of the arrangement have met with success beyond their expectations. Everything points to a day of great pleasure for all those who may be in attendance at this outing.

The Club has arranged for amusements of every description on the picnic grounds, a mammoth parade in which Commercial Clubs from adjoining towns, local merchants and several bands of music will participate, and many other features for the enjoyment of the visitors to our city.

Nothing is being left undone that will in any particular add to the success of the occasion and we have the assurance of this representative body of business men that this day will go down on record as one of the most enjoyable in the history of Paris. So with this object in view let us all "get in the push and push."

That is the question! Over Thirty-Five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning, its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other medicine.

Cupid's Coal Truck.

By James Francis Dwyer.

Copyrighted, 1908, by J. F. Dwyer.

The car came to an abrupt stop, and the conductor stretched his neck in a reckless manner as he looked for the cause.

"Coal truck on the blink with a broken axle," he cried disgustedly. "Now I got to chase through the snow to phone the 'mergency' van." He walked through the car to acquaint the motorman of his heroic intention, and, after buttoning his jacket, set off up the snow covered road in search of a telephone.

The motorman took the opportunity to stretch his legs by walking around the disabled vehicle. When he stepped from the car the two passengers sighed wearily and the man moved closer to his companion.

"Well, I'm glad that conductor has gone," he remarked. "He stared at us with his conscience suggested I had given him a bad coin."

The fur-wrapped girl beside him laughed merrily.

"It's a habit of conductors," she murmured. "I have noticed them before."

"I will pardon him," said the man. "He is but mortal, and I am pleased to find that his mercenary occupation has not destroyed his love of the beautiful."

The girl smiled indulgently, but remained silent. Meanwhile the motorman had entered into a discussion with the truck driver as to the best method of removing the damaged vehicle.

"Letty!" The man's voice interrupted a day dream and the girl started.

"Do you know I am desperately in love?"

The big blue eyes surveyed him critically.

"No, I do not," she said emphatically. "When a man is in love he can never disguise the fact."

"You are thinking of calf love," he remarked, "the kind that bubbles over and spoils its owner's appetite, but still healthy man's love."

"It is all the same," she interrupted. "Concealment is impossible. Now, Mr. Dorrington is in love, and a child can detect the symptoms."

"Dorrington?" The man's voice expressed his surprise. "Do you mean old Dorrington?"

The slightest puckering round the corners of the little mouth showed where a smile tried hard to establish a footing.

"When Mr. Dorrington called yesterday," continued the girl, "I watched him closely while he was speaking to mother."

"Pardon me!" The man's tone was masterful, and the girl stopped. "Dorrington—old Dorrington—in love with your mother?"

The smile made another valiant effort to disturb the serenity of the girl's face, but retired discomfited.

"I do not think so," she said quietly. "If he is, the feeling is not reciprocated, as mother always leaves me to entertain him when he calls."

The man winced.

"I am anxious about him"—he tried to hide the effect produced by her thrust—"Dorry is not young, you know, and love, like measles, plays the mischief with elderly people."

The hovering smile flashed triumphantly across the girl's blushing face.

"Seriously, Letty," her companion continued, "Dorrington is old! I remember him twenty-five years ago, when he chased me away from a pool near your mother's house. God bless my heart, girl—his tone changed to one expressing blank astonishment."

"I am getting old too!"

The girl turned, and the blue eyes looked carefully over the man's brown face, noting the length and depth of every wrinkle that marked it.

"You are getting old, Jack."

"I know it," he cried, "and here am I in a sidetracked car doing nothing, while time pursues me remorselessly."

Evidently thinking anything preferable to inaction, he started to capture one of the little gloved hands of his companion, and after she had vainly tried to defeat his intentions, he clasped it between the two and seemed immensely pleased at the feat.

"Dear me," she sighed, "I wish that conductor would come back."

"He cannot shift us!" The man was defiant, and the girl blushed as she noted his restlessness.

"You are the car driver, you!" she cried irritably, "and your actions since he departed prove that the stars are effective."

"But, Letty," he said, "what a terrible thing it is to look back on thirty-five wasted years, thirty-five autumns, thirty-five springs and the same number of winters and summers, all barren and useless!" He shuddered and moved closer.

"Oh, Jack," she murmured, "do look and see if he is coming!"

He stood up, still holding the little hand, and carefully scanned the white road. "He is not coming!" he cried gleefully. "He will have to walk a mile—a mile there and a mile back."

"You have no pity," exclaimed the girl. She made an attempt to release the man's hand, but as she spoke, her eyes were attracted by a gleam of light. "How would you like it, sir, if you had to walk two miles in the snow because a silly old coal truck collapsed on the track?"

seat. "It is a wonderful, glorious, rainbow-lined instrument of—"

"Don't say Providence," she interrupted.

"No, of Dan Cupid! Didn't I tell you, Letty, that I adore?"

"The coal truck," she interrupted again. "You certainly used enough adjectives to give one that impression."

"And I do," he cried defiantly. "I adore the horses, the axle and every other part that helped toward the breaking-down because—do you know why, Letty?"

"Because it made the poor conductor jump two miles in the snow," she answered.

The man was annoyed.

"Confound the conductor!" he cried. "I wish he'd come back," she said. "If he does not return soon I will call upon the motorman. I suppose he is responsible for the safety of the passengers while his mate is away."

The mention of the motorman made her companion turn around to see where that person was stationed, and he was somewhat surprised to find that he had impressed two horses belonging to another truckman and, with the combined teams, was making a vigorous effort to pull the obstruction from the track. This strenuous proceeding alarmed the man, and he turned quickly to the girl.

"Letty, I want you to listen," he cried. "This might be the only chance I will get to explain."

The noise outside increased.

"Go ahead!" screamed the driver, as the four horses strained and struggled. "Keep it up! Keep it up!"

"Letty!" The man seized both hands now and tried to turn her face toward him. "I want to tell you!"

"Use the whip!" yelled the driver. His shrill shriek ripped through the car and drowned the man's voice.

The girl turned toward the window, and the fur boa on her shoulders shook suspiciously. The man had a dim idea that she was laughing.

"Letty!" The man was desperate. "I—I love you."

A loud yell of triumph came from the driver, and a merry peal of laughter from the girl helped the echoes as they buzzed around the car. The noise was tremendous. The driver's yells were deafening, and the shouts of the motorman and the truckman told the man that the work of removing the obstruction was nearly finished. He took one hasty glance at the moving truck and, springing back, quickly seized the laughing girl in his arms.

"There!" he cried triumphantly as he kissed the blushing face. "And there! And there again!" And over the girl's muffled laughter and protests came a victorious cheer from the motorman and the two truck drivers, informing the two passengers that the truck was clear at last.

Three minutes afterward the conductor kicked the snow from his boots and gave the "Go ahead" signal to the elated motorman, and the car moved off. As they passed the disabled truck the man pointed to the name painted in red letters on its side, and the girl read, "John Love, Truckman."

"One of Dan Cupid's aliases," whispered her companion. And the blush on her face made the beauty loving conductor smile at the first of the journey to the infinite delight of the man.

The File.

It is said by some that we owe the life—"our piercing," as Shakespeare calls it—to the Swiss, and Sir James Turner who busied himself in writing on military matters named it the "Alpine whistle." In France it was employed at least as early as 1534, in which year it was ordered by Francis I. that each band of 1,000 men was to have four drums and two fife.

A few years later in England we find "drommes and tyffes" included in the muster of London citizens. Shakespeare refers to the musician, not the instrument, when he speaks in "The Merchant of Venice" of "the vile squealing of the wry-necked fife." An old writer observes, indeed, that a fife is an angry-necked musician, for he looks "awful" from his instrument.

About the reign of James I. the fife lost its popularity for a time. Sir James Turner observing, "With us any captain may keep a fife to his company and maintain him, too, for no pay is allowed him, perhaps just as much as he deserves."—Chambers' Journal.

Wanted Browning.

He was identified a German. His speech didn't belie the fact. He caught the attention of the librarian.

"Browning?" he asked.

"What book?" she asked.

"Browning?" he repeated.

"Who is the author?" she asked.

He looked troubled.

"Browning," he said, "I forgot it." He said, but his name began with "P."

"Poe?" asked the obliging girl.

"Not Poe," he answered.

"Pope?"

"Not Pope."

His face brightened up.

"He is called Browning," he said.

"Why, that was Browning."

"Browning?" he asked.

"Browning?" he asked.

Plan for Summer Comfort

Don't let the heat of a kitchen fire be the chief discomfort of hot weather.

Use a New Perfection Wick
Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove
and cook in comfort.

With a "New Perfection" Oil Stove the preparation of daily meals, or the big weekly "baking," is done without raising the temperature perceptibly above that of any other room in the house.

If you once have experience with the

NEW PERFECTION

Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

you will be amazed at the restful way in which it enables you to do work that has heretofore overtaxed
the kitchen and yourself.

The "New Perfection" Stove is ideal for summer use. Made in three sizes and all warranted. If not at your dealer's, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp

gives perfect combustion whether high or low— is therefore free from disagreeable odor and cannot smoke. Safe, convenient, ornamental—the ideal light.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J.

City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. FRANK J. CHENEY.

boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four year old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured him and believe that saved his life. William H. Stirling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with confidence according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Another Pool Formed.

The smaller the area of production
the more easily a product can be controlled. Seventy-five per cent of the orchard grass seed grown in the United States is grown in the counties of Jefferson, Henry, Oldham and Warren, of this State, and most of the rest in a couple of counties in Indiana. An airtight pool to control this production has been formed and all the seed grown will be sold through one firm.
The figures have not yet been set on the crop, but the growers will get what they ask.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrer of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907 I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by W. T. Brooks.

Reunion of Morgan's Men.

The annual reunion of the John H.
Morgan Association will be held at Parks, Tenn., on August 18th and 19th. This occasion is always a peculiar pleasure to Morgan's men, and many survivors of the famous command are expected to attend. No set functions or speeches will be given but every man will be permitted to tell his story, magnified or otherwise, as often as he may desire.

A High License State.

The Louisiana shall be a high license State for the next two years at least. It was finally decided by the last week when the Senate passed the Chattanooga-Gay liquor bill, 29 to 4. This measure has passed the House, and is known to have the Governor's approval. It fixes the minimum parish license at $100, minimum state license at $200, with a minimum license running up to several thousand dollars each.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

Lightning struck and killed a fine broodmare belonging to Ed Allen, near Humboldt. The mare was the dam of Bourbon Chief, and was valued at $1,000. Her loss falls heavily on her young breeder.

Homegrown peaches are in the market in scant quantities, as the frost of April reduced the crop.

W. A. Bacon bought a fine horse sery for $300 handed over wearing by Laocenta, dam of Laocenta, of H. 2-09.

Do you attempt to feed and rest
the horse at noon with his harness on? A man might as well think of joy his dinner by sitting down to it with overcoat, hat and gloves on.

At a sale of Shorthorns held by Walpole Bros. and W. J. McLean on Tuesday of last week at Rock Valley,
Iowa, 46 head average $122.18.

At a recent sale of Kentucky sals and harness horses in New York, conducted by Dr. Frank J. Versailles, a Montgomery Chief saddle gelding, sold for $1,185.

Warren Rogers sold last week to
G. W. Morrow for the United States Dressed Beef Company 30 head of export cattle at $6.35 per one hundred pounds. Mr. Rogers also sold 53 head of cattle to Maurice Weil, of Lexington for $6.50 per one hundred pounds. The first bunch of cattle will probably cut weigh the latter by fifty pounds per head.

Reports from Germany state that the price of pork is again going up in that country. The price in Berlin is considerably in different large cities.
From a table now before us giving quotations in various we find the following interesting figures: Berlin pork is quoted at $9.93 to $10.10 per hundred. Magdeburg is the lowest point quoted, at $9.52 to $9.65.
At Nuremberg it is $12.44 to $13.16
the 17 cities named in the table, the three quote pork at less than 10 cents per pound.

Threshermen who have been operating their machines through the week until the rain put a stop to further work, report a light yield. But few fields will make a better average than 15 bushels per acre, while the run of operations show a yield averaging from eight to ten bushels. In the on the Dan Igar farm, which stood so thick on the ground as to tax the capacity of the binder when cutting, the threshers disclosed an average of hour run, only 71 bushels of grain. The quality of the grain is reported as being as disappointing as that of the yield, the grain being shriveled and light in weight. Expert wheat growers give as the probable reason for the poor yield and quality of grain the effects of the severe frosts and freezes occurring in April.

The swine, save an exchange, are getting scarcer than they have been in years and the traders say, hogs will bring $7 per hundred within sixty days.

There is nothing more detrimental to the fowls that chiggers, says an expert poultry raiser and if the coops and houses are free from them the chicks will always be healthy and grow rapidly. If instruction are properly carried out the following remedy may prove of value to those of our readers who want healthy fowls. Take four or five hot sticks, tie a piece of old rags or woolen rag, one end with wire, making a torch, saturate it with coal oil, set fire to it and burn rapidly around the chicken coop or henhouse. Try this and see how soon the chiggers will disappear.

Valued Same as Gold.
B. G. Stewart, a merchant of Cedar View, Miss., says: "I tell my customers when they buy a box of Dr.
King's New Life Pills they get the worth of that much gold in weight, if afflicted with constipation, malaria or biliousness." Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store, 25 cents. July

It Reached the Spot.

Mr. E. Humphrey, who owns a large general store at Omega, O., and is president of the Adams County Telephone Co., as well as of the Home Telephone Co. of Pike county, O., says of Dr. King's New Discovery:
"It saved my life once. At least I think it did. It seemed to reach the spot the very instant of my cough—when everything else failed." Dr. King's New Discovery not only reaches the cough spot; it heals the sore spots and the weak spots in throat, lungs and chest. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store, 50 cents and $1.00.
Trial bottle free. July

Ready for Parker.

Friends of Mr. Bryan at Denver were prompt to denounce the effort of Judge Alton B. Parker to attack Mr.
Bryan under cover of resolutions on the death of Gruver Cleveland.

In order to prevent the controversy sure to follow the introduction of the resolutions prepared by Judge Parker, Mr. Bryan's friends will as soon as the temporary chairman has finished his speech introduce a set of resolutions paying tribute to Mr. Cleveland.

The resolutions will be drawn in such a manner as to leave no cause of dissatisfaction and if Mr. Parker attempts to substitute his resolutions, his purpose to create dissension in the Democratic party will be made plain and can be promptly rebuked by the delegates without the appearance of dissension.

Judge Alton B. Parker issued a statement Saturday in which he said the Cleveland resolutions which had been printed were tentative only and that he had intended to revise them before offering them to the National Convention.

He denied that his purpose had been other than to pay tribute to the memory of Mr. Cleveland and said he could be guided in his action by the caucus of the New York delegation. Charles S. Murphy, the Tammany leader, said that he had never seen the resolutions and that Judge Parker would be compelled to submit them to the entire delegation before offering them in the convention.

Needs a New Religion.

The following is from the Methodist Advocate and is applicable to any cormunity. It says: "Just at this time our country needs a new religion that will make a man pay his debts. Should we not settle accounts with God or man? We bounce right into a man and put him out of a church if he goes to a theatre or a ball, but never word to the pious old scamp who never pays his debts. Preachers and people who do not pay their debts are doing more harm than dancers and drunkards, for there are lots of them in the church.
Reader, is this getting close to you?
Then lay down your paper and go pay up and then read with ease. And don't refuse paying because the statute of limitation excuses the open account, which you made for bread and meat.
You must pay it in cash or God will lay it up against you. God knows no such excuse for not paying as homestead exemption. When you use the excuse that God knows no such excuse, you can stop sinning. When I can read my way to the altar, I can say:
You will have none there."

WALTER A. WOOD

NEW CENTURY BINDER

This binder has a world-wide reputation. In every grain growing country under the Sun it is said to be the best yet by all who use it or see it work. The features that appeal most to its users are:—lightness of draft; handiness of operation; durability of construction; ability to do perfect work in any kind of grain; accuracy and sure work of knotter; absence of neck weight and side draft. The New Century is the latest type of binder, made by the people who gave the world its first successful binder, and now give it its most successful one—a binder that will do work no other machine can do.

It is constructed on principles and from materials that insure more work, better work, longer life and reduced repair bills with less loss of time. We'd like to send you our free catalog describing it in full before you decide on which binder to buy.

WALTER A. WOOD MOWERS

Are Different From All Others

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower in 1882 it was upon a principle entirely different from any other. That same principle today distinguishes our mowers from all others. It is the "floating frame" described so fully in our catalog. All manufacturers of mowers admit that the "direct under-draft" principle is the correct one—but they can't use it because genuine under-draft is possible only with the "floating frame" construction which is exclusive to Walter A. Wood mowers. We feel justified in asserting that our mowers are: the easiest running; lightest draft; handiest to operate; least expensive to keep in repair; and longest lived. The mower that leads on these points is the mower it will pay the farmer to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

Yerkes & Kenney,

Neely's Old Stand.

Paris, Kentucky.

Farmer Hangs Himself.

James A. Gammon, of near Danville aged 45 years, was found hanging in his barn, having evidently committed suicide many hours before the discovery was made. Gammon was a farmer and no cause is known why he should have decided to end his life. He leaves a wife and one son.

Wyatt's Personally Conducted Summer Tour.

J. D. Wyatt, Excursion Manager, of Lexington, Ky., will give one of his personally conducted summer tours to Atlantic City, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., Philadelphia, New York, via Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad on July 30, 1908. The entire actual cost for this, one of the most delightful of summer trips, is $35.00. Address Mr. Wyatt, at Lexington, for full particulars.

More Time Given.

Dr. Arthur Yager, chairman of the Rhodes Scholarship Committee of Kentucky, as well as President of Georgetown College, has just received information from the Rhodes Scholarship trustees at Oxford that the qualifying examination for those to be elected to the scholarship for 1910, will be held October, 1909, instead of January as heretofore, this giving more time for the student to choose his college and get in readiness.

The Latest From Denver.

The "allies" who are seeking to organize opposition to Mr. Bryan are not meeting with much success at Denver. The New York delegation is going to leave its attitude on all questions to a subcommittee favorable to Murphy's wishes. It is said Mr. Bryan prefers that no choice be made for Vice President until the end of the ticket as named by the Democratic National Convention.

Gun and Knife Play.

On the Lexington & Eastern train Saturday afternoon, between Winchester and Clay City, a quarrel arose in which Floyd Horton was shot three times by Gardner Nelson. One shot took effect in the breast and two in the face. Reese Horton, a son of Floyd Horton, attacked Nelson with a knife, inflicting wounds which may prove fatal. The elder Horton is also supposed to be mortally wounded. Both the wounded men were taken to Lexington.

Off For North Pole.

Commander Peary's steamship, the Roosevelt, built by the Peary Arctic Club, will sail from New York and stop today at Oyster Bay, where it is expected President Roosevelt will visit the ship, will proceed to Sydney, where Peary, having gone by rail, will join her.

We Will Tell You.

The Greatest Sale of Dry Goods,
Ready-to-Wear
Goods,
Notions, Etc.,
In the History of Merchandising in Paris.

OUR buyers were on the ground with a great syndicate who bought the entire stock of Loom Ends from several of the largest mills of the country. These goods were bought at auction for spot cash. We propose to offer such unheard of buying chances during this sale that will make competition tremble and buyers smile. We have plenty of Loom Ends suited to your ideas. There are plenty of long pieces in nice colors, shades and patterns. You will find just what you want cheaper than you expect. If you imagine Loom Ends are a lot of junk you will be agreeably surprised.

Loom Ends are goods that fall short in length of the requirements for export purposes, but identical in quality with the first grades, yet still not to be classed with the regular goods, because they are wanting in length, or a slight imperfection in the weave, careless stitching in the underwear or a thread dropped in hosiery. These are Loom Ends. None of these slight flaws hurt the wear or the looks of the goods to the customer, but they prevent mills or factories from selling them at a profit. The enormous stock of Loom Ends we have purchased for this sale are all new goods, fresh from the looms, and are offered today at Loom cost. You will never know what Loom End Cost is if you fail to attend this sale, for the prices given are but an inkling of the money-saving opportunities offered. You pay two or three times the price for the same goods at other stores.
